F. B. Hamilton, who has been visiting relatives in Tennessee for several months, returned Saturday and has resumed his duties as ticket agent and operator.

* Some people are still curious to know who the correspondent to THE STAR is. Curiosity killed a cat once. Those that are still curious had better ask Mr. Foster, perhaps he knows.

There is no hope for little Johnnie Patterson. That is the doctors pronouncement his case of Cocoa-an-i-ty incurable. Once thoroughly infected with these germs a fellow will have to take them to his grave.

Presiding Elder E. B. Ley held quarterly meeting in the M. E. church Friday night. He was very much impressed and delighted with the church work. The report was the best ever for this place.

We are sorry to hear of Mr. Jalma Lapham's misfortune of losing his residence by fire at Indianola Sunday morning. The fire originated from the flue in the kitchen. Everything was saved except one or two pieces of furniture.

Mrs. R. M. Packard and children returned from Hendersonville, N. C., Monday afternoon, where they spent two months. Mr. Packard states that it is much warmer there than in Cocoa—no breeze. That speaks well for our breeze on Indian river.

Thursday of last week was Brother McCord's birthday. The ladies prepared a nice surprise for him. After prayermeeting that night a large crowd went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, where several nice presents were presented and then cream and cake served.

GEORGIANA

Lee Baldwin has harvested about $100 worth of fine honey this year.

Mr. Peachey, who has been under the doctor's care for sometime, is improving slowly.

Carl Wittfeld arrived home from Atlantic City, N. J., last Wednesday evening, surprising his family and friends, who are very glad to have him home again.

The topic of the Sunday morning sermon was The Motive Power, and in the evening The One Talent. Both sermons were fine and people who had come a long way through heat and mosquitoes felt well repaid for their trouble.

Last Friday about a dozen manatees came down the river and were feeding along quite close in shore. Their antics were certainly amusing. Two boys went out in a rowboat and attempted to drive them still further in shore, when the whole herd turned and made for deep water, causing a great commotion in the quiet river and a small tidal wave on shore.

TROPIC

Mr. C. H. Casper is building a packing house on the river front.

Mrs. Ensey and daughter, Miss Fedora, and Mrs. West spent Monday in Eau Gallie.

The hotel will be continued under the management of Mrs. George M. Brown, wife of the former proprietor

A Californian's Luck

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Chas. F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c. boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Banner Drug Store.

For a mild, easy action of the bowels, a single dose of Doan's Regulets is enough. Treatment cures habitual constipation. 25 cents a box. Ask your druggist for them.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

(CO-EDUCATIONAL)

Lake City, Fla.

Columbia college offers splendid opportunities for young men and young women who wish to fit themselves for usefulness and success in life. While we aim at mental culture the practical is not overlooked and moral training is emphasized.

The organization of the college into the several schools covers the entire education of the student.

- I. THE SCHOOL OF ACADEMIC GRADES—Preparatory to the college classes.
- II. THE SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS—Covering the languages, the sciences, mathematics, etc.
- III. THE SCHOOL OF FINE ARTS—Music, painting, etc.
- IV. THE SCHOOL OF PEDAGOGY—Teaching, training, etc.
- V. THE SCHOOL OF THE BIBLE—Study of God's word and religious culture, etc.
- VI. THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS—Book-keeping stenography, etc.
- VII. THE SCHOOL OF DOMESTIC SCIENCES—Cooking, dressmaking, needle work, etc.
- VIII. THE SCHOOL OF PRACTICAL ARTS—Gardening, dairying, poultry farm, etc.

Competent instructors will meet the classes in the above named schools. Facilities and apparatus have been provided to illustrate and demonstrate the work in the several departments.

The College Co-Operative Home offers advantages at reduced charges. We aim at the best possible education at the lowest cost consistent with comfort, neatness and social dignity.
